

Porsche in Le Mans

Sensation

In 2015 Porsche won its 17th overall victory in Le Mans with the 919 Hybrid prototype.

Overall victories by car maker

Overall victories by car maker country

Overall victories by driver

Overall class victories by car maker

Dominance

9 of the top ten spots in the overall standings were won by the Porsche 956 in the year 1983.

Many cars

60 racing cars will enter Le Mans in 2016—the most since the 1950s.

Short night

3 minutes shorter than last year—the night in Le Mans from June 18 to 19 will be nearly the shortest of the year.

Quick gear shifts

25 293 gear shifts were performed without complaint by the transmission in the Porsche 919 Hybrid that won Le Mans in 2015.

Fuel stops

14 laps—this is how far the 2016 Porsche 919 Hybrid can go before having to return to the pit for refueling.

Peak speed

340.2 km/h—absolute top speed!—was reached by the Porsche 919 Hybrid in 2015 with Mark Webber at the wheel.